Mrs. Joan Alvarado

Miss Bertha Melkonian

This trio of sincere, dedicated teachers has left our halls after many years of service to the thousands of students who have passed through their hands. Mrs. Alvarado retired with a background as head of the Girls' P.E. department, 22 years service in the school, and perennial winner of the Favorite Female Teacher Award. Miss Melkonian, who will devote her leisure time to travel, was our resident Shakespeare scholar besides her usual chores in the English and History Departments. Miss Keeley transferred from a member of our Social Studies Department to Department Head of the same discipline at Mission High School.

What's Happening?

Room five is the center around which all activities of the student government revolve. In this small room the school officers work together to help the administration function smoothly.

In the upper left picture is secretary Jill Toups who is responsible for recording the minutes at student council meetings and typing notices. Jill also handles the correspondence to other high schools and various organizations.

Uniqueness in Cheerleaders

Brenda Johnson

Poly is the only high school in the city with female cheerleaders. A cheerleader's duty includes keeping everyone jolly. They attend all games and are in the rallies. The sponsor is Miss Ables who helps select uniforms and new cheerleaders.

The head cheerleader leads the cheers and directs the others. The cheerleaders for the 1966 football season were: Brenda Johnson, Sandra Black, Flora Casey, Vera Willis, Eleanore Ballard, Debbie Hamilton and Head, Barbara Wallace. The Basketball season cheerleaders were again Barbara Wallace, Tony Medina, Juanita Crowder, Flora Casey, Valida Greer, and Melvin Noguera.

Routines and Work Make the Pom Pon Girl

The PomPon Club consists of the regular Pom Pon girls and those girls interested in becoming members. To become a pom pon girl, one must learn all the routines and participate for two semesters. The girls, sponsored by Miss Tania Moore, perform in rallies and at all games. The Pom Pon Girls for the football and basketball seasons were Head, Jeanette Pancharian, Melanie Jackson, Pat Sada, Susan Mendoza, Carolina Bitanga, and Debbie Burroughs.

L-11 Captures Miss Poly Title

Queen Joyce Sterling and Cadet Colonel William Jackson

The Class of Spring 1968 really went along "full-blast" this year. Miss Poly, for the first time in years, was not a member of the high senior class. Her name was Joyce Sterling.

Upon learning of her victory, Joyce said that she was "surprised and happy. I said to myself, I know that the twelfth grader is going to win." Winning this honor was not only a surprise to Joyce, but to the entire student body.

The queen stated that her future goal was to finish college and go to work. Joyce also wanted to get married and raise a family.

She was crowned at the traditional Poly-Lowell game by Mr. Zimmerman, acting principal. Her crown was a bouquet of roses.

Sitting: Teresita Julian, Laura Lewis, Wendy Peurala, Paul Blanc.

Science Club Has Big Hopes

The science club, having only started this year, has hopes of becoming one of the most successful organizations at school. The goal of its members is to increase their knowledge of science. Some of the club projects include nature walks, guest speakers from prominent universities, and stimulating club discussions. The success of the organization is attributed to the keen interest of its members, their hard work, and to Mr. Keyes, the sponsor.

The fall editions of the PARROT were under the guiding hand of Editor-In-Chief Shannon McKee and were noted for the biting tone of her editorials. The editorials remained the focal point of the paper all semester and part of the credit belongs to Assistant Editor Pat Newlands who also wrote for that page. Senior Page editors, Corazon Intertas, Ray Paton, Steve Galliher, Cynthia Pratt and Regan Jessett contributed throughout the year to the effectiveness of the other pages.

In his second semester of Journalism Carl Jensen became Spring Editor-In-Chief. The paper's role of commenting on social problems and critical school issues was continued. Again seven editions were published during the semester, making the second consecutive term this accomplishment was achieved.

Spring Block Works Hard

The Girls' Block Society was founded by Miss Frances McCall in 1933. It functions as a coed-educational club having many social and athletic activities in association with the Boys' Block. Picnics, parties, dances, roller skating parties, coed and faculty volleyball games are part of the traditional events. One of the special events is a Mother and Daughter Tea, given once a year at Installation Time.

One of the many purposes of the society is to carry on where the GAA finishes and to provide service in many ways to assist the proper functioning of the school through rallies, athletic games, Open House Programs etc. To be a member of the Honor Society a girl must take four semesters of GAA.

Drill Team Places First

The above picture is of Poly's ROTC Drill Team. This group of cadets participated in all civic parades. In October the Drill Team participated in the Columbus Day parade, taking a first place. After the parade, the cadets competed in the Liberty Bell competition against all other S.F. high schools. Our Drill Team placed first in this competition for the second consecutive year.

Having won this competion, the cadets were honored at a Presidio Officer's Club dinner sponsored by the Reserve Officers Association of San Francisco, California.

The Drill Team also won the competition in the St. Patrick's Day Parade.

H-12 Wins Miss ROTC Title

Miss ROTC Spring 1967
Eleanore Ballard

Eleanore Ballard, having competed with four other girls and tying with one, captured the title of Miss ROTC for the spring semester.

Each girl had to sell her qualifications to each cadet in the ROTC. This was done by making a speech about her activities and just why she thought she should be Miss ROTC.

Eleanore was a H-12 student, coming from registry L. Her many activities included the Big Sisters, GAA, and Block P. Eleanore was the past head of the Poly Majorettes. After high school, she hopes to go to San Francisco College for Women and become a Modern Dance teacher. She hopes to return to Poly to do her teaching.

Upon winning this title, Eleanore stated that she was indeed surprised.

"The competition was so great. I knew all of the other girls and felt that all of us were really qualified."

The other girls who competed were Miss Company A—Pat Sada, Miss Company B—Debbie Hamilton, Miss Company C—Prima Marquez, and Beverly Kordziel.

The Polytechnic Advanced Band has performed most admirably through the past year. They ended the year by performing at graduation.

Music Dept. Has Busy Year

Dance Band

The a cappella choir was formed in 1954. It is an organization restricted to the finest singers. The purpose is to provide an opportunity of learning and singing the finest choral music available. A tremendous cross-section of music is practiced, and a minimum of five performances are given each semester. The choir performs traditionally at the graduation as a salute to the graduated. On a voluntary basis the choir provided a subsidiary group which went on a tour during the Christmas vacation. The size of the group has varied from 50 to 120 members over the years.

Spirit Not Athletic Ability

Debbie Hamilton, Barbara Cute, Beverly Cute, Margaret Minkwitz, Mary McGirr.

You don't need athletic ability to join the Girl's Athletic Association, just spirit and perseverance. Muscle building is the least of their aims. The club really concentrates on extra curricular sports and individual playday activities with other schools.

For more than 20 years this organization has sought to impart athletic exercise and good sportsmanship in the coeds. Skating, bowling, swimming, and modern dancing enliven the image of the girls' PE department. Four semesters of participation earns a girl her block.

Instructors Alvarado, Gadas, Phillips, Roscoe, Stein and Pates all contributed toward making this another successful year for the club.

I'm Coming Through

Clifton Smith surrounded by Lincoln tacklers

Misfortune hit the squad during pre-season training when their top lineman, Phil Cassidy, was injured for the season. This calamity was followed by a schedule which found us first playing the four teams which eventually made the playoffs. We barely bowed to Balboa and Saint Ignatuis but our 3rd and 4th contests against Lincoln and Lowell saw us badly outplayed. With four defeats on our record, we made a complete about face and upset Sacred Heart to send the Parrots flying down the home stretch. Led by offensive center and defensive end, Andre Hicks, the line began to dominate the scrimmages. Ron Jones, Frank Santiago, Ben Foster, Dennis Mullins, Jim Acevedo, and Steve Smith became tough linemen.

Blocking and tackling by the line allowed the backfield to run wild. The Chronicle referred to our offensive backfield as one of the best balanced in the league. Steve Jordan finished 4th in AAA rushing statistics with 685 yards in 124 carries for a 5.5 average. Vince Ansley passed for 466 yards and 6 TD's.

The team ranked fifth in the city in both team offense and defense. Johnny Brown was a great deep pass threat from his flankerback position. When Clifton Smith played quarterback he was the best runner in the city at this post. Lau Noa was the fifth man in the backfield. After dropping our first 4 games we bounced back to capture the next 4 and then fought Washington to a standstill only to bow by one touchdown in the finale.

That's My Boy

Coach Johnston profiles his sharp visage to the cameraman as he watches the game action and Lau Noa (number 34) in particular brush past Lincoln tacklers. The coach had many reasons to be proud of his fine backfield of Clifton Smith, Vince Ansley, John Brown and Steve Jordan. This quartet over the second half of the season connected for many long scoring plays. Jordan and Smith scored on many long runs while John Brown hauled in several long TD passes and Ron Jones scored once on the longest scrimmage run of the campaign.

Sophomores Post 6 Wins

The failure to successfully convert the extra point try after touchdown cost the team defeats in their first two games. Even so, the sophomores posted another winning season, 6-2, and outscored their opponents 139-39.

Defensively, the team proved tough all season, and this strong point was coupled with an explosive offense. Team captains Kerry Hampton and John Sampson led the squad described by coach Krusinski as "a spirited, hard-working, hard-nosed squad".

Outstanding backs were halfbacks Derek Hithe and Hillary McKenney, and quarterback Bob Mason.

Linemen who excelled were: tackles Dennis Acevedo and Steve Satterfield; guard David Romeo; and center Kerry Hampton.

Poly runs ball through Lincoln lines.

A Great Season For Cagers

Polytechnic experienced its best season since 1959 as our cagers went all the way to the championship game only to lose by three points to a strong Balboa five. Last year's standings saw the parrots finish eighth, winning only two games. This year Poly tied Wilson for third place with 6 wins and 3 losses. Coach Don Benedetti guided and practiced with his team in order to be ready for the big event of the pre-season, the Bay Area Invitational Riordan Tournament. In the first round Poly defeated Richmond. In the semis, we edged a strong McClymonds team by two points and set the stage for our 60-44 triumph over Saint Ignatius and possession of the tournament trophy. Besides that guard Charles Joachim was named MVP showing good outside shooting and excellent defense. Also guard Dave Kline and forward Kevin Gotchet made the all-tournament squad.

Before the start of the regular season we were rated as a contender for the crown. The starting five was composed of Larry Hicks a 6'5" senior center who was a mid-term grad, Kevin Gotshet, and Vince Ansley as forwards and Dave Kline and Charles Joachin as guards. Also our sixth-man Ron Maxwell. We won four out of first five games with the help of Larry Hicks big rebounds. When he graduated 6'6" junior Mike Stewart replaced him and Ron Maxwell replaced Ansley at forward. In the last four games our cagers went down to defeats by Wilson and Balboa. Next year our Varsity team will probably be playoff bound with many seasoned veterans returning along with two young sophomores who played ball this year, Reginald Ridgeway, and Don Booker. Taking up the shooting duties may be Joe Smith the 130's gunner this season.

Almost But Not Quite

Along with the Parrots, Lincoln, Balboa and Wilson made the AAA play offs. The Balboa Bucs and Lincoln tied for the round robin title; therefore, each took an extra point into the championship fray. Lincoln was picked to beat our cagers in the first round. Lincoln was lead through the season with strong shooting from Telvis Jones who totaled 155 points. Coach Don Benedetti started a strong lineup with Gotchet, Maxwell, Stewart, Kline and Joachim. The game went our way 65-46 with five key shots by Kline, who totaled 27 points, 13 of those from the free throw line and strong rebounding support from Maxwell and Stewart. Balboa set the climax by defeating Wilson in their game and was ready to do the same with Poly. However, Big Mike Stewart changed all that by playing the best game of his life and scoring five points in overtime to upset Balboa and send the championship into an extra game. The final game saw over 400 spirited Poly students in attendance. This time, however, Balboa came on strong to overcome our hard playing teams by three points.

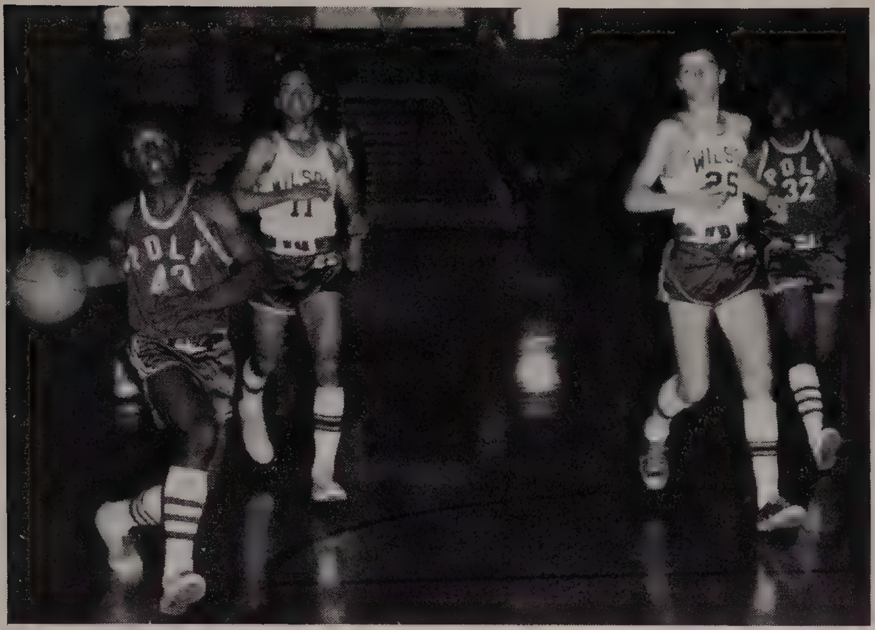
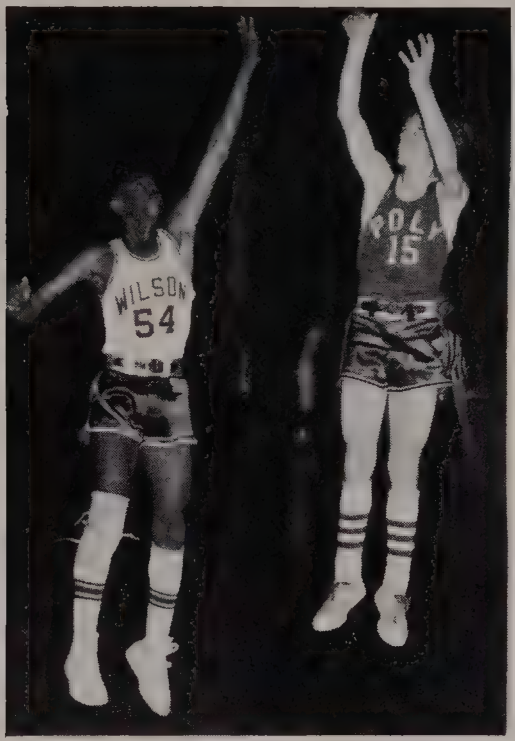
Parrots Nipped By Wildcats In Playoffs

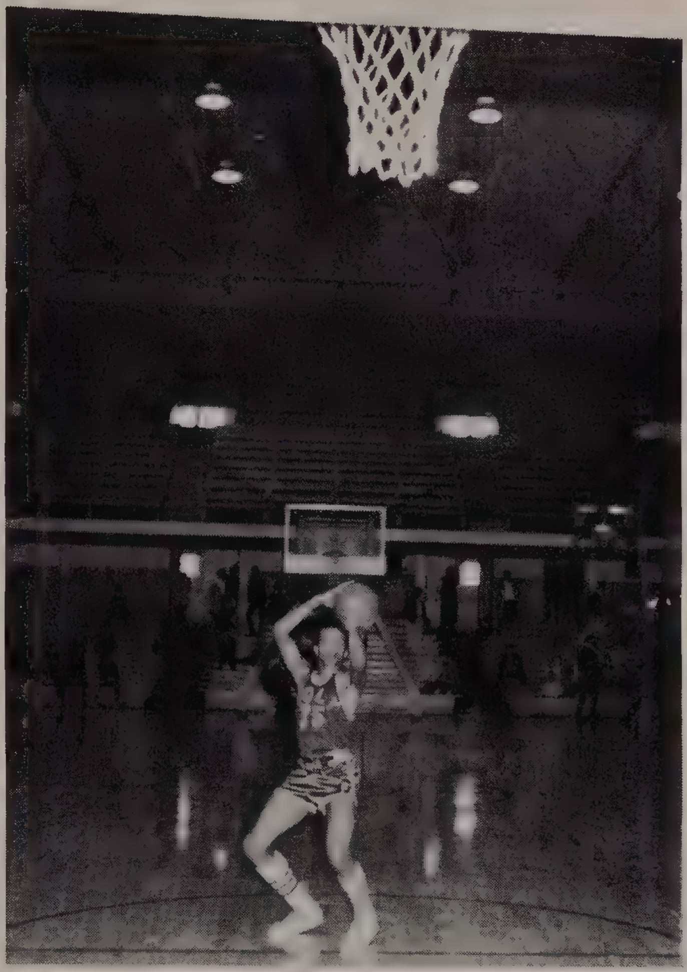


Marzett Gilbert streaks pass Wilson for lay-up.



Guard Marty Cole takes jumper over Wilson player.

Our 130 pound basketball team ended the regular season with an overall record of 6 wins and 3 losses. They played 4 overtime contests, two of them double overtimes. In the first extra time game they lost by one point to Lincoln. Then followed a hair raiser double overtime tilt vs Mission and victory by 2 points. Against Washington James Treat tied the score at the end of regulation play with a last second effort, and the Parrots went on to triumph by 4. The results were exactly reversed against Balboa when we went into overtime only to lose by 4 points. The team was led throughout the season by sharp shooter Joe Smith. His dead eye jump shot enabled him to lead the league in scoring with 180 points. His top effort was 30 points against Galileo. During the playoffs he pumped in 46 points in two games. At the starting guard slots for the team were Marty Cole of all-city baseball fame and James Treat. 6'1" Terry Bradley handled the bulk of rebounds. When Treat graduated at mid-term, Bill Rodriguez and later John Jones filled his slot. To make the playoffs Poly had to beat Wilson in the last game of the season and we managed to overcome this obstacle 63-57. The high point of the entire year came in the first playoff game when we reversed an earlier 29 point loss to Sacred Heart to overcome the round robin champ Irish in a 1 point thriller. In the second game underdog S.I. refused to roll over and derailed our express by a 2 point margin, 59-57.



League's high point man, Joe Smith, displays excellent form from charity stripe. Joe averaged 20 points per game.

The Class of Fall '67 Moves Up to Become the Newest H-12's

Spring of 1965 introduced these students into the Polytechnic atmosphere. They weathered the same problems all sophomores must solve; more freedom, more responsibility, a higher caliber of education, and many social problems.

They entered their junior year and held a joint Junior Prom with the Class of 1967. This Prom was held in the school cafeteria.

During the spring term of 1967, they became seniors. They had a candy sale in order to put more money in their class treasury for their Senior Prom. Then the Move Up Assembly in June officially granted them the privilege of being crowned our newest High-n-Mighties.

The Class of Spring 1968 Shows School Pride and Spirit

From the moment these students entered Poly in Fall of '65 they generated such enthusiasm that it shook our usual indifferent students. In their first year they had a car-wash and a cake sale which gave their class treasury over $50. They closed that year by election to student body office one of their own members. (Which probably never happened here before).

Going into their second year a large percentage of their members were on the Honor Roll and they were very active in school clubs and functions. In the last half of their junior year they had their Junior Prom. The Junior Prom symbolically closed their second year with fond memories and anxious expectations toward their senior year.

'69 Class Sees Racial Strife

The Sophomores entered school during a time of civil disturbances and administrative unrest. They were witnesses to racial violence in which several students were injured. They saw their school portrayed in newspapers and on television in a most unfavorable light. At this time they were somewhat influenced by the general public opinion that Poly was largely attended by disobedient, irresponsible, and not too intelligent people. They soon found that for the most part the students are friendly, the teachers are competent and that the students can and do receive an adequate education. Now that they have been introduced to Poly, the next two years will be easier and the Class of 1969 will progress and perhaps achieve more because many changes for betterment will come about as the result of the strife and turmoil.

Looking Ahead

Step from classroom to a bright future at Metropolitan Life. Good starting salaries, regular raises, frequent promotions. Stop in after school and let us tell you about it. As a Metropolitan employee, you'll enjoy many benefits. Insurance benefits, for instance, include life insurance, disability insurance, hospital, surgical, and major medical expense benefits. There are liberal vacations and holidays and cash awards for suggestions. There is a well-stocked library, free to employees, of course. Many different social and athletic groups help you get to know your co-workers. Stop in to see us soon, at the address below.
